

Schools are given help so that pupils who are disabled do well in school

Children who find school hard are given extra help

Time to take part in chosen activities.

Help children to enjoy coming to school

Praise for those who are doing well.

ENJOY AND ACHIEVE

More good work stickers, especially for children who never get them.

Make more places for babies and toddlers to go to

More places for teenagers to go.

Make school more fun.
Don't put pressure on children with tests and exams

Toddler groups and playgroups in school.
Baby changing facilities in school.